We are a Bible centered group of believers desiring to grow in the full knowledge of Jesus Christ without compromise to His Word.

"If sinners will be damned, at least let them leap to hell over our bodies. And if they will perish, let them perish with our arms around their knees, imploring them to stay. If hell must be filled, at least let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions, and let not one go there unwarned and unprayed for."

THE CORNER

Dear Friends,

During the month of July my nephew, Charles, and his family had gone on a weeklong camping trip into the wilderness area of the Sierra Nevada mountains. My wife and I decided to visit them for a day trip and we found the road was paved but at a certain point it was only a rough dirt road. The terrain was steep with canyons and bridge over a river that looked like it was ready to fall down any time. After driving a few hours we finally found Charles and his family who had camped between two small lakes.

After lunch, I felt a nudge by the Holy Spirit to start the car and found that it would not do so. This pleasant day trip suddenly turned into a struggle of getting out and back home. Charles drove us to a place where there was cell phone reception and I called for AAA to come and rescue us. At eight o'clock we called again about the tow truck and found out that we had to drive to a local town because the driver was unfamiliar with the dirt roads. It was dark when we finally connected and I had the opportunity to speak with the driver as we drove back to the camp. He was born again but he had great personal needs and I was able to share how to overcome them with God's help.

It was a small miracle that we were able to get the car loaded on the flatbed amongst all the trees and rocks. We prayed before the driver started to load the car; he was going to use his flashlight to see in loading the vehicle, but he was amazed to find out that the floodlights, which were broken, had suddenly started to work. After a slow drive over the dirt roads and out of the mountains, he delivered us home safe and sound at 5:30 in the morning. After he unloaded the car, I gave him a copy of Christian Dynamics Course 1 and showed him where some of the topics we had spoken about were located.

I remember talking to the Lord, that it was fine for Him to send this tow truck driver so that I could minister to him for more than eight hours. I realized this man would never have met me unless our car had broken down. For many years I have told people that it is seldom convenient when there is a need for ministry and this road trip to the wilderness reinforced that truth.

I also thought about the future and the coming of the Antichrist. Many people imagine that when that time comes, they will flee into a wilderness area and wait for Jesus to come back. I learned this, that there is no food in wilderness areas and you need to bring in supplies that would last you a long time. This last winter they received 58 feet of snow that was on the ground until late June.

~ C.H. Spurgeon

It would certainly be difficult to survive a winter like that and the Holy Spirit showed me that my safety is in Christ. There is only one way to survive when the tribulation period arrives and that is through the power of the Holy Spirit and living in the supernatural. God made a difference between the children of Israel and the Egyptians when He sent the plagues. And when there was a drought in Israel, God sent the prophet Elijah into the wilderness where ravens brought him food. When the brook dried up, God sent him to another nation and had a widow supernaturally feed him.

When my car was taken in to be repaired, I found out the ignition switch had gone bad. It just happened to die right there in the wilderness. During my 50 years of driving, I have never had an ignition switch go bad on me. Did God break it? I believe He had an angel break it in order to teach me about the wilderness, but most of all to reach this hurting tow truck driver.

I remember telling God in the wilderness that I was fine with the situation but asked Him to cover the repair cost. Some four weeks later a check came in the mail made out to me and marked for personal expenses of the pastor. God covered the cost of the broken ignition switch. We serve an awesome God, who loves us and surely deserves our praise. To God be the glory!

Yours in Christ,

STOCK MARKET LOSSES & RISING UNEMPLOYMENT

John S. Torell

August 14, 2011

Heavy losses are showing up on the stock market exchanges around the world during the last two weeks while the price of gold has been steadily rising every day to record highs. The commodity markets are very unstable, the price of oil is down from its high of $100 plus per barrel and the U.S. dollar is down again this week.

I am going to show you that financial crashes are induced by the World Government, which exercises total control of global and national banking, sales of commodities and the setting of currency exchange rates. All banking and other financial corporations are controlled by this World Government.

There is a history of crashing the economy in the United States, resulting in economic depression, recession, unemployment, bankruptcy of businesses and starvation for the poor.

BOOMS AND BUSTS

To create a boom, the World Government tells the bankers to lower interest rates and aggressively offer loans to farmers, factories and businessmen. This creates new jobs since the farmers, factories and the businessmen will expand and need more workers. With more people working, there is also more demand for goods and services which further heats up the economy.

This in turn drives up the prices of homes and suddenly people have more equity in their properties. The bankers then promote refinancing at low interest rates and encourage people to cash out the equity of the increased property value.

Homeowners then have more cash to spend on transportation, remodeling, new furniture, vacations, etc. These purchases will heat up the economy some more, and in order to meet the demand of the consumers, factories and businesses expand. Farmers also have to increase their production to meet the demand that comes when people have more money.

The bankers then encourage farmers to take out low interest loans and use the money to upgrade their farming equipment. At the same time, people are enticed to enter the stock market to earn more money without having to work for it. With more and more people coming into the market, the price of stocks rise up and people are told to get in while the market is still on the upswing. Some people will use the equity in their homes to buy stock.

By this time the World Government has lured millions of people into a trap. They are in debt and depending upon their job to make a living and at the same time servicing their loan debts. The economy is now floating on a "loan economy" that can only last as long as new loans are made and fresh money enters into the market. At this time people will not be able to pay off their loans; all they can do is to make payments and service the interest.

PULLING THE PLUG

The World Government then orders the bankers to stop making new loans, raise the interest rates on existing loans and start calling in business loans before they are due. Rumors are floated in the media at the same time that the economy is having a problem that will most likely get worse.

The banks and the big investors are told to start selling off stocks which causes the price of stocks to fall. People begin to panic and start selling their stocks at a loss and the price is driven lower and lower. The general public doesn't know that the bankers and big investors then move in and purchase stocks for pennies on the dollar and waiting for the next boom to make a huge profit.

Consumers will cut back on their spending and factories and businesses start to lay people off. The result is that the economy slows down as more jobs are lost. Many people can no longer make their mortgage payments and are forced into foreclosure. Those who bought homes during the boom now find out that the home is worth far less than the mortgage they have on it. Many people start to walk away from their homes and the banks repossess them. The price for food has fallen and there is no profit so farmers lose their land because they can't pay their loans.

By now unemployment is rising toward the 10% mark and the streets are full of people who are homeless and the soup kitchens and churches are struggling to feed all the people coming to them. Young people are enlisting in the military because they can't find jobs and this makes it possible for the World Government to instigate wars with a surplus of soldiers.

As the economy reaches a low point, the bankers are told to start investing again. Farms, homes and other commodities have been "stolen" by the bankers and investors, who preyed upon people when they lost their jobs. The bankers slowly begin to loan out money again, lowering interest rates and the cycle to another boom is started.

Our public school and college students are taught about the cycles of the economy, but they are never told that the cycles are man-made and that the economy is nothing but large scale theft by the people in charge of the nations.

The World Government uses the media to explain what is happening and why it is so, but all these explanations are nothing but lies and generation after generation buy into them.

The different political parties tell the people that they will fix the economy, but this is a lie since they cannot fix something which they do not control.

PLANS FOR THE UNITED STATES

In the early years, the World Government wanted the United States to have a central bank that they could control but the American people didn't want a central bank like in Europe, because they had seen enough of the Rothschild's manipulation. The World Government declared war on the American people and created ten panics that brought the American economy into shambles.

1. THE PANIC OF 1819
2. PANIC AND DEPRESSION OF 1832
3. PANIC AND DEPRESSION OF 1836
4. THE PANIC OF 1837, CAUSING A SIX YEAR DEPRESSION UNTIL 1843
5. THE PANIC OF 1857
6. PANIC AND DEPRESSION FROM 1869-1871
7. THE PANIC OF 1873

8. THE PANIC OF 1893
9. THE PANIC OF 1901
10. THE PANIC OF 1907

It took the World Government and its puppets, the bankers, ten economic crashes to force the American people to accept a central banking system controlled by the Bank of England, which in turn was controlled by the Rothschild banking house. The Federal Reserve Act passed on December 1913. The result was that most independent farm and city banks were either crushed or bought up by the big New York banking houses.

THE FINAL PUSH FOR GLOBAL CONTROL

Up to 1913 each nation controlled most of its own economic development but this had to be destroyed in order to create a global economy. It was done in a series of staged crashes:

- ❖ The stock market crash in 1917 as the U.S. was dragged into WWI. The downturn lasted 393 days and the market lost 40.1% of its value.
- ❖ The stock market crisis in 1919. The downturn lasted 660 days and the market lost 46.6% of its value.
- ❖ The stock market crash of 1929. The downturn lasted only 71 days, but the market lost 47.9% of its value.

THE DEATH BLOW CAME IN 1930

We have been told that the Great Depression began in 1929 but it really began on April 17, 1930. It would last 813 days and investors lost 86% of their investments. The stock market made a partial comeback by July, 1932, but the deep worldwide depression didn't end until WWII began.

THE STOCK MARKET CRASH IN 1937

Scandals on Wall Street and the ongoing severe depression were the reasons given as to why the stock market crashed on April 10, 1937. The market was down for 386 days and did not move upward until March 31, 1938. The market lost 49.1% of its value.

THE STOCK MARKET CRASH OF 1939

Germany had been re-arming since 1936, and when they attacked Poland on September 1, 1939, the New York Stock Market crashed eleven days later. The market was depressed until April 28, 1942. The international bankers and investment houses purchased the sold off stocks, knowing full well that the military build-up in the United States would boost the profit on stocks more than 500%. The investors who sold off their stocks lost 40.4% and the market was suppressed for 959 days.

THE STOCK MARKET CRASH OF 1973

The war in Vietnam was winding down and taking down the defense industry. The Watergate scandal took place on June 17, 1972, when former intelligence agents working for President Nixon broke into the National Democratic Headquarters to steal secret documents regarding the coming election campaign. The market crashed on January 11, 1973 and stayed suppressed for 694 days when it started to recover on December 6, 1974. Investors' losses amounted to 45.1%

THE STOCK MARKET CRASH IN 2000

The crash in 2000 was the year that the tech bubble burst from Internet companies who had been riding high and driving up the financial markets. It began on January 15, 2000 and the downturn lasted for 999 days and ended on October 9, 2002. Investment losses at this crash were 37.8%. During this period the 9/11 attack on the twin towers took place in 2001 and caused the United States to invade Afghanistan on October 7, 2001. With this war and the eventual war in Iraq, the U.S. again built up its war machine and money was made at Wall Street.

THE CRASH AND PANIC OF 2008

The crash on September 16, 2008 was the result of the collapse of the American housing market, which began to decline in 2006. This was a typical Rothschild operation that began when banks started with low interest rates on so-called introductory rates, which would last for five years, and then the mortgage rate would rise to a very high rate. Since this was the age of re-financing, lenders would offer loans to people who did not qualify for a high mortgage rate, but could qualify for a low introductory rate. The lender would tell the borrower to refinance in five years and get a better mortgage rate. The problem was that the banks had loaned out too much money and sold subprime mortgages to raise more cash.

The World Government leaders had calculated that this Ponzi scheme would be allowed to fail over time and then the whole housing market in the U.S. would be dragged down and cause a massive financial collapse. Because new loans were blocked, the people with introductory rates found that they could not pay their mortgages and went into foreclosure. With millions of homes in foreclosure, pressure built up on the banking system as one mortgage company after another failed and went under. Countrywide was one such company and the U.S. government pumped in $900 billion to make sure the whole system did not go down. Bank of America purchased Countrywide for $4.1 billion and paid $50 billion to purchase Merrill Lynch. Both of these companies were loaded with bad real estate loans and the toxicity of these subprime loans threatened to wipe out Bank of America. Obama and his administration told congress that these banks were too big to fail and they would drag down the whole economy. The result was that Congress voted to give $900 billion in a rescue package; Bank of America received $20 billion in aid and $118 billion of loan guaranties.

Thus the international bankers passed on their bad loans to the American taxpayers and at the same time took possession of all foreclosure homes and resold them. This was the worst double dip theft of the American people ever perpetrated.

All together the United States government allocated over $900 billion for special loans and rescues relating to the housing market crash. As of August 2011, the American housing market is more depressed than ever. All of the billions of dollars pumped into banks and investment houses went to pay off the international bankers and make sure they would recoup their investments with a hefty profit while the American people are left holding the bag with the housing industry still in shambles.

THE AIG BAILOUT

The American International Group, Inc. (AIG) is among the largest American insurance companies operating as a global corporation around the world. In 2008, it was listed as the 29th largest insurance company in the world. Like so many other greedy corporations, AIG invested money into the subprime mortgage market and was on the ropes when this market collapsed. The Federal Reserve Bank (FRB) declared AIG was too big to fail, and on September 16, 2008, created an $85 billion credit fund, that was made available to AIG to meet its financial obligations. In return, the Federal Reserve Bank obtained 79.9% of the stocks in the corporation, which meant the FRB had taken ownership of AIG by issuing money out of thin air with no backing. By May 2009, the FRB had invested $185.5 billion in AIG. As a result, AIG started to sell off a number of its subsidiaries in order to pay back the FRB.

THE LEHMAN BROTHERS

It is very interesting that the original Jewish banking house of Lehman Brothers did not get a bailout from the FRB or the U.S. government despite the fact that it was the fourth largest investment bank in the U.S. behind Goldman Sachs, Morgan Stanley and Merrill Lynch. The last Lehman, Robert, died in 1969 and from that time the family lost control over the company. The Lehman family could not come up with a successor like the Rothschild family does and in 1984 the corporation merged with American Express.

American Express began to divest itself in 1994 and spun off the Lehman Brothers and the former Jewish banking house of Kuhn & Loeb, and the new company was named Lehman Brothers Holding, Inc.

On September 13, 2008, the chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, Timothy F. Geithner,¹ called a meeting (on a Saturday) to discuss the future of Lehman Brothers. On September 15, 2008, the leadership of Lehman Brothers announced that they would file for chapter 11 bankruptcy. For reasons unknown to the public, the World Government leaders did not want to save the Lehman Brothers despite their Jewish origin. The corporation was broken up into pieces and the next day, the British bank, Barclay, announced it was willing to buy a “stripped part” of the Lehman Brothers, including most of its North American operations. This was approved by the U. S. bankruptcy judge, James Peck, on September 20, 2008.

What should be pointed out is that all the people who held stocks in the Lehman Brothers lost 100% of their value. Thousands of workers at the corporation lost their jobs, and once the Lehman Brothers corporation was slaughtered, it was carved up into small pieces and bought for pennies on the dollar. The big banking houses walked away with an enormous profit.

TROUBLED ASSET RELIEF PROGRAM (TARP)

It doesn’t matter what political party is in charge, the World Government will put pressure on its people in the financial market and they will apply pressure on the president of the United States and Congress. The TARP program was signed into law by President George W. Bush on October 3, 2008, giving the Department of the Treasury the authority to purchase or insure troubled assets.

The fund was initially set to $700 billion, but it had to be approved by Congress, which approved the release of the first $350 billion on October 3, 2008. A second release of $350 billion was to be released on January 15, 2009. The U.S. government did not have this money, so it became part of the deficit, borrowed money that was guaranteed by the American tax payers.

The international banks are holding bad loans and losing money. They turn to the United States government for help, who borrows the money and gives it to the bankers. But the U.S. government must pay interest on the loans. Part of the interest payments go to the international bankers. If a regular person would do business like this, he would be indicted for fraud and sent to prison.

On December 19, 2008, President Bush used his executive authority and decreed that TARP funds could be used on any program that the Secretary of Treasury, Henry Paulson, felt was necessary to avert a financial crisis. In doing so Bush unlawfully bypassed Congress and the American people.

AUTO INDUSTRY BAILOUTS

In April 2009, the three big automakers in the United States told the government their companies would go under and cause millions of Americans to lose their jobs unless they received cash. After a debate in Congress, Chrysler received $4 billion and General Motors received $6.7 billion. Ford decided it did not want help and would pull itself out of the hole. The Obama administration demanded that Chrysler and GM file for chapter 11 bankruptcy reorganization, which GM did on June 8, 2009. Since GM is a global company, the U.S. court ruled that only the American division of GM would be forced into bankruptcy. All the shareholders in GM lost their stocks and were wiped out. The court ruled that they could not go after GM's international divisions. On July 10, 2009, GM came out of bankruptcy and was once again traded on the New York Stock Exchange. Again, the U.S. taxpayer bailed out two corporations, while the people who had purchased stock in these companies had their money stolen.

BUSINESSES THAT FAILED

Here is a partial list of the corporations which went out of business due to the financial panic and crash:

- ❖ New Century Financial Corporations
- ❖ American Freedom Mortgage
- ❖ American Home Mortgage
- ❖ Charter Communications
- ❖ Lehman Brothers
- ❖ Linens 'n Things
- ❖ Mervyns
- ❖ NetBank
- ❖ Terra Securities
- ❖ Sentinel Management Group
- ❖ Washington Mutual
- ❖ Icesave Bank (Island)
- ❖ Kaupthing Singer & Friedlander, British investment bank
- ❖ Circuit City
- ❖ Saab Automobile, Sweden

In addition to this partial listing, there were 15 other banks in the United States that were allowed to fail while the big ones were rescued

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

The week of October 6 through 11, 2008 saw the greatest drop in the Dow Jones Industrial Average (DJIA), when the market dropped 1,874 points or 18% of its value. The S&P 500 dropped 20%. On October 24, 2008, all the stock markets in the world fell an average of 10% in one day, while the DJIA went down 3.6%. By March 6, 2009, the DJIA had fallen 54% to 6,469 from its peak of 14,164 on October 9, 2007. The millions of Americans who had put money into 401K accounts lost 54% of their savings and/or retirements. Retired Americans relying on their investments in the stock market, 401Ks and other investments found that half their money had been wiped out. Did the World Government leaders and their puppet bankers lose any money? Absolutely not! They used the Rothschild formula and started the downward trend, and when ordinary people had sold out their stocks in panic with heavy losses, they quietly bought up shares for pennies on the dollar.

Christians who are smart and in tune with the Lord should learn that playing the stock market is no different than going to a casino and gambling. In a casino the house never loses, the gamblers do. In the stock market, the bankers never lose; it is the customers who invest in gambling on the stock market that lose.

THE AMERICAN DEBT CEILING CRISIS

As I have previously stated in this article, the World Government leaders can only take over the world if they control the global economy and lure all nations into debts so huge they can never be repaid. In the spring of 2011, the Obama administration began speaking of the need to raise the current debt ceiling. The United States has been spending more money than it takes in through taxes and fees for many years and the government has kept increasing the spending by borrowing money from the World Government and its puppet bankers and investors. Foreign nations are also loaning money to the United States by purchasing government bonds and many American citizens are also investing their money in US bonds.

Obama warned that unless Congress approved raising the amount of money the government is allowed to owe, the United States would default and drag the whole world into a financial meltdown.

The amount owed to the banks, foreign nations and people was $14.3 trillion. One trillion dollars is one thousand billions. One billion is one thousand millions. 1,000,000,000,000 is one trillion. A million seconds is 12 days. A billion seconds is 31 years. A trillion seconds is 31,688 years.

If the current national debt was divided up for every person residing in the United States, it would total a personal debt of $47,090.00 per person. As of now the United States will never be able to pay off this debt. The World Government is very happy and they are pushing the Obama administration to increase its spending and borrow more money. Their goal is for the debt to be so large that the government can no longer keep up with the interest payments and go into default.

If there is a default on a national scale, it would bring the entire financial system down and unemployment would instantly be 100%. The World Government wants people to be so desperate for a solution that they will accept a one world government with a one world religion and a controlled economy that can only be accessed by those who have been registered with the World Government.

The Obama administration wanted to increase the debt ceiling by $2.1 trillion to $2.4 trillion to give the government enough borrowed money to last through 2013. This means that for every dollar that the government spent in 2011, 60 cents comes from taxes and fees and 40 cents had to be borrowed.

Congress and the American people were told that there is going to be large cuts that will decrease the debt by $2.1 trillion over the next ten years. Americans thought it was great to save $2.1 trillion over the next ten years, but in the meantime, the deficit is going to rise by at least $2 trillion per year. If we get away from the voodoo mathematics of the international bankers, it means that in ten years the national debt is going to rise $8.0 trillion dollars, and instead of a national debt of $14.3 trillion dollars, we will have a total debt of $22.3 trillion.

Obama and the democrats tricked the American people into calling, writing, e-mailing, faxing and twittering all the congressmen and senators to urge them to raise the debt ceiling in order to avoid a financial crash. The republicans also sold out when they voted for it.

WAS THERE ANOTHER SOLUTION?

Every day thousands of Americans go bankrupt. Their credit is ruined but their debts are wiped out and they can start afresh. Any assets outside their home and transportation must be liquidated. They can no longer live on credit and can only spend what they make.

If the president of the United States and Congress had agreed to abolish the Federal Reserve Bank, cancel all debts and issue new money backed by gold and silver, our debt situation would have been over. We would have been free from the Rothschild's and the other bankers and could have rebuilt our nation and begin living within our means.

We would have had to get out of Afghanistan and Iraq, and all the other nations which we are propping up with our military, and Americans would have taken personal losses. But that would not have been much different from the losses incurred during the crashes of the stock markets and the financial downturns we are having now. We could have been free from debt.

Investor's like the Chinese, Russians and the Arabs would have screamed to high heaven and the Jewish world leaders would have dressed themselves in sackcloth and ashes but shouldn't the president, senators and congressmen think of America first?

The American people have become so stupefied listening to the controlled media that they are like cattle standing outside a big slaughterhouse, eating corn and thinking of what a good life they have while they are waiting to be killed by the butchers.

THE 2011 PANIC AFFECTING THE ENTIRE WORLD

We have now seen ten more panics in the financial market system since 1913 and all nations are now part of a global economic system. Will the World Government have enough momentum to push the nations of the world to accept a new World Order Financial System that will assure the people of the world there will be no more financial melt downs?

The desperate call for some kind of intervention is increasing in both Europe and the United States. Look at the following article from the Wall Street Journal. This paper is owned by Rupert Murdoch,² an Australian Jew who moved his operation to the United States. Murdoch is one of the insider players in the Jewish World government and his job is to create a public opinion that is friendly toward the Jewish World Government.

The Eurozone Crackup

By Mike Whitney - August 22, 2011

“That realization has in recent days prompted Germany, the region’s economic powerhouse and an opponent of fiscal union, to reconsider proposals that would force it to accept responsibility for the debts of its neighbors. Thursday’s markets rout, the worst in Europe in more than two years, suggests Berlin and Paris may have to act quickly. If investors lose confidence in the region’s banks, Europe’s financial system could seize up, tipping the euro zone into another recession.” (“Renewed Fears Europe’s Banks Too Weak To Withstand Debt Crisis”, Wall Street Journal)

The situation is progressively getting worse. Money markets, commercial paper and the repo markets--where banks get their funding--are all under pressure. The time to act is now, but EU leaders remain frozen in the headlights.

The only way to save the 17-member monetary union is through greater integration, that means a central fiscal authority that can help to level the playing field between the richer and poorer countries. But many of the countries--particularly Germany--do not want to create a fiscally viable EU because it would require them to subsidize the weaker states via Eurobonds which they oppose. And, there’s the rub; without Germany on board, the banks will be forced to write down the losses on the bonds they hold, which will erode their capital and spark another credit crisis.

Presently, the ECB is purchasing the sovereign debt of countries in the south to prevent a freeze in the credit markets. But the ECB is operating on an emergency-only basis and does not have the institutional authority to implement the same policies in normal times. This band-aid approach has investors worried, which is why they continue to move money out of money markets to deposit accounts or risk-free assets like US Treasuries...”

“...As the former European Commission chief Jacques Delors said on Thursday, “Open your eyes: the euro and Europe are on the edge of the precipice.”

You can see the Rothschild formula all over this excerpt from the Wall Street Journal. First, in calling for a strong central banking system that will lock in the European nations into a system where they no longer control their own finances. Secondly, the bankers do not want to lose any money so they are clamoring for a central bank that will issue bonds, backed by the taxpayers, so that the bankers will be sure that their loans will be repaid, even if a nation defaults on its obligation.

THE HANDWRITING IS ON THE WALL

People need food, clothing and shelter to be able to survive. People who do not work are lacking these three fundamental things. As more people become unemployed, the pressure to reform the global financial system will increase. The slogan will be: A global crisis must have a global solution!

The Bible tells us that there will be a future world dictator ruling all nations under a one world religion and a global financial system. This system will not be ushered in through a violent war, rather, it will come peacefully through a global economic crisis that no man can solve until Satan’s protégé steps in on the world scene with a brilliant solution that the world’s population will love and embrace. Most people don’t know that Jesus revealed Satan’s plan more than 1,900 years ago:

“And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. If any man have an ear, let him hear. He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.” (Revelation 13:1-18)

WHAT SHOULD WE DO?

If we do not expose the danger now, it will soon be too late, but before that happens we can still expose Satan’s plan and slow him down. This article will spread if people start posting it on their blogs and facebook accounts. Share with those you know.

I am currently writing a series of booklets called “The Kaballah: The Mother of all Harlots.” The first booklet deals with the teaching of the Kabbalah and its first messiah, Sabbatai Sevi. The second one deals with Jacob Frank, who laid out the teachings of conquest, which was used by the Communists and the Nazis. The third booklet deals with the Rothschild family and international banking. The fourth one deals with the stealthy takeover of the United States from 1860 to 1907.

These are booklets condensed so that a person can get basic knowledge with enough details to verify the truth in the books. You may order them from us via our website.

Get into God’s financial system that has been operating outside Satan’s system for the last 4,000 years. God has set up His own economic system of tithing that works in all nations irrespective of the World Government.

“For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed. Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.” (Malachi 3:6-11)

REMEMBER OUR MINISTRY

The information you have read has been compiled from our ministry which is now at a breaking point. In order to maintain and also to expand we need to hear from all the people who have come in contact with us. You hold the key to growth and reaching more people.

Time is of essence. The World Government is tightening the noose every day. Let’s hurry to do what we can while there it is still day.

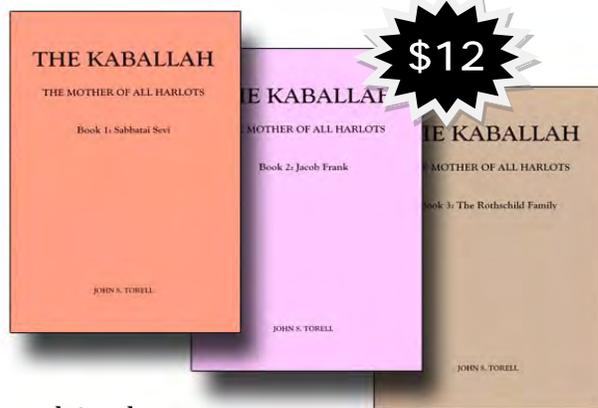

Most of what we produce is given out free, and unless God’s people take action, the message to the people in the world will slow down in coming from us. Thank you for all who are helping with prayers and financial gifts.

“I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.” (John 9:4)

THE KABALLAH - Book 1: Sabbatai Sevi

Sabbatai Sevi proclaimed to be the messiah in the year 1666, but unlike Jesus, he lived an immoral life, and the Kabbalah teaches that through his sinful life and death through sickness, he opened the door for salvation for them that believe on him. Striving to live a sinful life is not the nature of God, but of the Devil, and the complete opposite of what the Bible teaches of Jesus, who was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life and died on the cross for our sins. The messiah concept found in the Kabbalah is actually "Satan's gospel" and the core belief of the people in charge of the coming World Government. If you don't understand this concept, you will be deceived by the Antichrist system and might even be assured to take the Mark of the Beast by apostate church leaders and the media.

THE KABALLAH - Book 2: Jacob Frank

For thousands of years people believed the earth was flat and the center of the universe, and anyone who challenged these assumptions was arrested, tried and put to death by the Roman Catholic Church. So what happens today when someone makes an assertion that is considered anti-Semitic but can be proven otherwise? Few Gentiles know about a Jew named Jacob Frank in the 18th century who was deeply educated in the Kabbalah and believed he was the reincarnation of Sabbatai Sevi. He believed in nihilism and advocated overthrowing every national government, executing every king and eradicating every trace of Christianity. He strove to destroy God's laws and lived in total sin. While Frank was never able to put his revolutionary ideas into practice, his writings did become the foundation for the scourges of Communism, Nazism and Fascism and someday they will also be used by the Antichrist. The millions that were killed during the Second World War and the communist takeovers of Russia, China, Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos and Cuba are a direct result of Frank's writings. Their blood cries out for truth concerning this demonized man so that so that future generations can be warned about this hellish future.

THE KABALLAH - Book 3: The Rothschild Family

A successful revolution requires a lot of money, but when the goal is to subdue the world and put it under a dictatorship, entire financial systems must be taken over. The Kabbalistic leadership wants to take dominion of the earth and rule it with their messiah and they need to control the banking system to achieve this objective. The Fugger family was promoted in the 14th century but they did not protect their wealth. Jewish traders became very wealthy during the next two centuries as they operated in all nations and supplied warring armies but there was no centralized control that could be projected over the banking systems of different nations. Meyer Amschel was selected to be the founding father of a global banking family. He was sly and deceitful and intensely loyal to the Jewish cause that is spelled out in the Talmud and the Kabbalah. The Kabbalistic leadership invested funds and coins which Amschel used to build a fairly strong banking house in Frankfurt and his five sons proved to be more shrewd than their father. In less than 50 years the Rothschild family had penetrated the financial markets in Austria, Germany, France, England, Italy and Spain. This is the story of the Rothschild's, who through the Kabbalistic leadership were able to set the policies in these nations and achieve a monopoly that is unrivaled today.

Salvation, Deliverance & Healing

"My husband has locked himself in the bathroom and is going to kill himself!" These were the frantic words spoken by a friend named Glenda as I was ready to enter a Southern Baptist Church on a Sunday morning in 1970 in San Rafael, California. My heart almost stopped as I heard these words because Jim was the worship leader in the church and a staff member at Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary where I was a first year student. They were really good friends to my wife and I and now he was going to kill himself? As a young Christian, I knew very little about spiritual warfare and wondered how I could save my friend.

I rushed over to Jim and Glenda's apartment and found to my great joy that Jim was still alive but very distraught. I told him about a book I had just read about demons and asked him to come with me to my apartment to get the book so he could read it and get some help. Jim grabbed me in a bear hug when we arrived at my apartment and said he was not leaving until I had cast out the demons in him. I was shocked since all I had ever done was read a book about it. As we knelt in front of a couch and called upon the Lord, I was again stunned when Jim lifted the couch in the air and foam came out of his mouth. There was no time for fear so I began to command the demons to leave. Jim collapsed on the floor after a fierce battle and I thought he was dead. I laid my hands on him and as I prayed the Holy Spirit fell on him and he got up and screamed, "Praise God, I am free!"

This is how I was thrust into a deliverance ministry. I purchased every book I could find on demons and the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. As my wife and I prayed for people, our skill level increased and so did the anointing from God. During our travels we ran into Satan worshippers, learned about the world government and for the next 40 years I have recorded what I learned. This practical handbook is the culmination of my life's work and will give you a solid understanding of salvation, how to pray for the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and how to have a close relationship with God the Father and His Son, Jesus. You will also learn the blessings God has for those who obey His Word and the curses that come upon those who disobey it. You will learn the difference between demon possession and oppression and how to handle demonic problems. In short, this book is the manual that I never had.

Thousands of people over the years have had their lives changed as they moved from defeat to victory and the same can happen for you!

Reality

One night in Vietnam under a Saturday sky, lit up with incoming rockets near my compound, I felt my life could end at any minute. I looked up at the lonely foreign sky feeling thousands of miles from my loved ones and cried out to God that I would seek and serve Him if He got me through Vietnam.

God kept His side of the bargain but I didn't. I came home safe and sound and pursued my dreams. I received a bronze star on my departure from the army. I graduated with a college degree. And I was honored by meeting Elvis Presley and working as one of his security guards, all of which I never dreamed possible.

However, nothing seemed fulfilling to me, especially when I came close to Sunny West, Elvis' personal bodyguard. He told me about all the Cadillac's and gifts from Elvis, yet no one in his organization seemed happy. As a matter of fact, even Elvis, who had achieved fame and fortune seemed miserable!

I would lay at night and ask God, "What's life all about? Are you even there?" The following songs are testimonies of my struggles to find happiness and fulfillment and purpose in my life. This only happened when I realized God was there all the time, waiting for me to come to the "reality" of His love and saving grace, which come to us through His death on the cross.

The "reality" is that Jesus Christ is real and I could never earn God's love by anything I tried to do. I simply had to accept His gift. My prayer is that I can give back something to Him through these songs, small as that is, for all He has given me and that others may find Him to be "reality" too because God's gift is for all who will receive it.

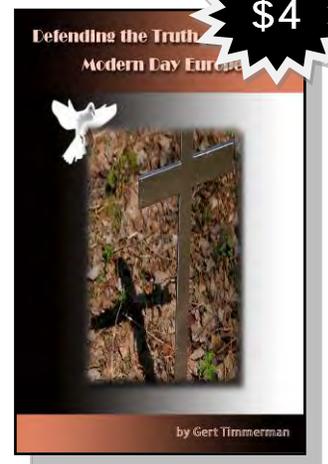

Defending the Truth of Christ in Modern Day Europe

Gert Timmerman

In January 2002, the Euro currency was introduced to Europe and so was my family. At the end of 2001, I was offered a job in Belgium and after prayerfully considering the offer, we decided to relocate. We moved from South Africa to Belgium on 4 January 2002, together with our 3 small children. Both my wife and I came to know the Lord at a young age. We grew up in Pentecostal/Evangelical/Bible believing/Holy Spirit permitting churches. At the same time our country was going through a dark period in her history.

Being born-again Christians in a general protestant environment, we had to defend why we believe that water baptism is an act of obedience coming from a saving knowledge by faith in Christ instead of christening a baby. We also had to defend from scripture why we believe in the baptism in the Holy Spirit. But we never had to defend the BASIC BELIEF IN THE BIBLE because "everybody" believed the Bible, it was only a matter of interpretation. But modern day Europe is different than South Africa because it has changed from Christian values to a lifestyle which shouts LIFE IS RANDOM and TRUTH IS RELATIVE.

I quickly realized that quoting from scripture or referring to Jesus' teachings is not stimulating for the cause of the Gospel but will cause the average European to shut his ears.

Gert Timmerman was born in South Africa and currently lives in Belgium. He is an account manager by profession with a post graduate in science but also a student of the Bible by passion. He has been married to one wife for seventeen years and they have three children. Gert came to know Jesus as Lord and Saviour at a very young age, and as he has studied the Bible, he desires to see the truth of Gospel reach the whole world.

THE BIRTH OF CHRISTIANITY

John S. Torell

The average Christian is not familiar with their Bible and possesses almost no historical knowledge regarding the birth of Christianity because most churches in the United States emphasize contemporary worship, a short sermonette and lots of social activities. This series of messages will educate you about the struggle that the early church faced in breaking away from Judaism.

The Talmud was so deeply ingrained in the apostles that they ignored the words of Jesus to evangelize the whole world because Gentiles were considered unclean and likened to animals. It would take some time before the church leaders finally lined up with their departed Master and understood that the Second Covenant is for the Jews and Gentiles alike.

But this didn't put a stop to misunderstandings about circumcision and what parts of the God's law applied to the Gentiles who were ignorant of the Old Testament and didn't have access to the scrolls in the synagogues.

Eventually it became necessary to hold a special conference in Jerusalem and straighten out what should be done with the Christian Gentiles. Their ruling was man's attempt to solve a spiritual problem in the flesh and it would be years later before the doctrine of the Christian church was finally written that corrected the errors from this conference and established the Christian faith.

THE STRECKER MEMORANDUM

Dr. Robert Strecker refutes, with documented evidence, virtually everything the so-called experts and Government reports have told you about AIDS. He asserts in no uncertain terms that AIDS is a man-made disease, AIDS is not a homosexual disease, AIDS is not a venereal disease, AIDS can be carried by mosquitos, and there can never be a vaccine. Dr. Strecker shows how AIDS was predicted, requested, created, deployed and works very well!

Although decades have passed and untold billions have been spent in research, cancer is still with us, the second major cause of death in America. The most dreaded fear that all oncologists, virologists and immunologists live with is that someday cancer in one form or another will become a contagious disease, transferable from one person to another.

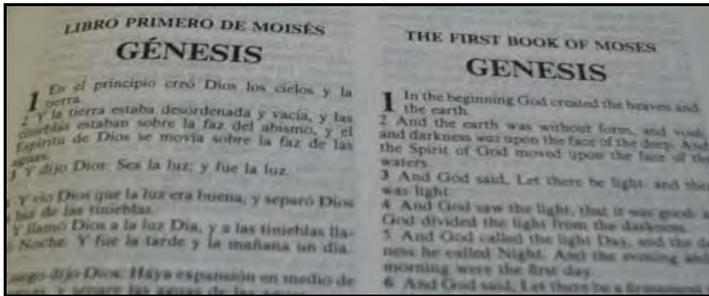

AIDS has now made that fear a reality, and if you think you're safe because you're not gay or promiscuous, or because you're not sexually active, then you had better watch this video very carefully until you fully understand what Dr. Strecker is telling you as he takes you step by step and shows you how this dreaded disease was actually man-made. Condoms can't prevent it and there won't ever be a vaccine.

Dr. Robert B. Strecker practices internal medicine and gastroenterology; he is a trained pathologist and holds a Ph.D. in pharmacology. Dr. Strecker and his brother, Ted, were preparing a proposal for a health maintenance organization (HMO) for the Security Pacific Bank of California. They needed to know the long-term financial effects of insuring the treatment of AIDS patients. In as much as this information was not readily available in 1983, both brothers began researching the medical literature to learn what they could about this relatively new disease. The information they uncovered was so startling and hard to believe that it would dramatically alter both their lives and lead them on a five-year quest culminating with the creation of The Strecker Memorandum video.
