PART 4A: THE CALLING OF MOSES

THE CALLING OF MOSES

- Moses was a well educated man in the knowledge that existed around 1,500 B.C. He would have studied basic mathematics, chemistry, history, herbal remedies, law, and Biblical knowledge which would have been passed on by his family. Acts 7:22-23
- When God activated Moses for his final project on this earth, it is obvious that Moses had lost all worldly ambitions; he was resigned to the fact that he was going to die in the desert as a poor shepherd. Moses' mindset can be seen in the name he gave to his son. Exodus 2:21-22
- Moses did not know during the time of his living in the desert 40 years as a shepherd, that in addition to becoming an expert in navigating the desert, he would also learn to survive in the winter when it was freezing cold and in the summer when it was scorching hot. Romans 8:28-31

TEAM MOSES

- When Moses took his flock of sheep to the backside of the desert and God showed the burning bush to him, Moses did not know that God had already put together a team of angels before he was conceived (Hebrews 1:6-14), furthermore, great preparations had already taken place on the earth and in the spirit world.
- Moses did not know that not only was he was destined to lead Israel out of Egypt, but after his death, he would come back to earth 1,500 years later with Elias to talk to the Creator himself, Jesus Christ, as he was preparing for the cross. Luke 9:28-36

THE LEGAL CHALLENGE

- The doctrine of predestination is not well known among Christians. It is seldom preached upon, and when it is preached, it is usually in a negative setting denying it. To understand predestination, Christians must understand that the fall of Lucifer took place before the creation of man, there was a trial, and at this trial Lucifer was sentenced by God to the Lake of Fire, but Lucifer has appealed his sentence and it is under this appeal that we find ourselves living today. Matthew 25:41
- Using Lucifer's appeal, God is actively showing his righteousness through the redemption of men. Romans 3:19-31
- In order for this process to function, God has created every man with a free will. God cannot force a man to do the will of God and thus violate his free will, He has limited Himself by asking each person to respond to His calling, and if they should refuse, God will simply let them go. Mark 10:17-27

- ❑ Each person must be exposed to temptation from the Devil to reject God! This is like a hostile cross examination of a witness in a court trial in the United States! This concept is clearly seen in chapters one and two of Job, in Luke 22:31-32, and I Peter 5:6-9.

Do you have an ear to hear with?
