PART 4: THE RAPTURE HOAX

The following account takes place in the future...

THE PROPAGANDA WAR

The Pastor realizes there is doubt about the Supreme Leader among the people and proposes a new idea. Why not produce a documentary on the failure of Christianity before the Supreme Leader's ascension to power? The Pastor states that during the Christian era on the earth, the Luciferian media in Hollywood and the television networks successfully produced documentaries to misinform the people.

The Supreme Leader is excited about this brilliant idea and tells the Pastor this is wisdom from Lucifer. "Spare no expense and make it the greatest documentary on the failed Christian church and let's destroy the Christian myth!" orders the Supreme Leader.

The Pastor rubs his hands in joy and says the cruelest joke Lucifer ever pulled on Christianity was the Rapture teaching. When the rapture failed to materialize, it destroyed the faith of millions and the Christians begged to receive the microchip. The Supreme Leader grinned, showing his ugly, rotten teeth and said, "This was the greatest hoax ever pulled and we are going to destroy any remaining vesture of Christian thinking from our slaves/citizens." He turns to the Pastor and states, "I was groomed as a child in the Jewish Kabbalistic system and have been given historical knowledge about it as well as from Lucifer. I would like to be interviewed by your researcher and share what I know."

The Pastor thinks this is an excellent idea and sets out to inform the Research Department, Historical Department, Finance Department and the Propaganda Department of the plan. He harshly barks out the order on his communication network for it to be done as soon as possible.

All official Christian records and material have already been removed from the public arena, but by searching the archives of the Kabbalistic leadership who spearheaded the preparation for the Supreme Leader, they are able to determine what took place. Corroborating this information with the Christian records that once had been common on the internet, they are able to verify and get an accurate account of what took place.

The Pastor prays to Lucifer and requests that the spirit world departments release their records and pass them to the Pastor through demons. After all, the rapture deception was carried out by the Religious and Financial departments who have existed since the time of Adam and Eve, staffed by fallen angels for the last 6,000 years. Angels do not age and they certainly don't retire. The same fallen angels who wrote the manuscript for Lucifer in his temptation of Eve are still at work.

THE RAPTURE DOCTRINE

A year later the Research Department comes to the conclusion that the false rapture teaching that Christians would be taken off the earth before the Antichrist and the Great Tribulation could be traced back to a Jesuit priest named Manuel de Lacunza who lived between 1731-1801.

He was a Kabbalistic crypto Jew, following the teachings of Rabbi Sabbatai Sevi, who declared himself the Jewish messiah in 1666. Lacunza was born to Jewish parents in Santiago, Chile, and as a loyal follower of Sevi, he committed apostasy by converting to the Roman Catholic faith and joining the diabolical Jesuit order.

Lucifer appeared to Mohammad in 610 B.C. to outline the Islamic religion and to Joseph Smith in 1820, who was given the doctrine of the Mormon Church. Lucifer also played a part with Lacunza in 1790 when he provided the Jesuit with a vision of the end times. Lacunza published the book with the title, "The Coming of the Messiah in Glory and Majesty." It was written in Spanish but later translated into English.

All three doctrines given to Muhammad, Smith and Lacunza were produced in Lucifer's Religious Department. Muhammad and Smith received it from an angel of light, but Lacunza only had a vision. 2 Corinthians 11:13-15

The researchers discovered the fallen angels in the Religious Department had been busy authoring religions with 4,300 different religions existing by 2020.

In order to transfer the rapture doctrine to Europe, Lucifer moved upon King Charles III of Spain in 1767 to issue a decree and expel all Jesuits from Spain and its colonies. Lacunza ended up in Italy and in 1790 completed his teaching on the future and the rapture of the Christians prior to the Antichrist system. In order to safeguard Lacunza's manuscript, the Religious Department used its network of Kabbalistic Jews to circulate them throughout the Spanish speaking colonies of South America.

Lacunza's books were banned by the Roman Catholic Church, but Jewish Kabbalistic sources printed his three volume books in the Spanish city of Cadiz under the name Rabbi Juan Josaphat ben-Ezra. In 1812 the books were published in Spanish in London.

THE RAPTURE TEACHING IN LONDON

The researchers noted that Lucifer had raised concerns about the Protestant churches in England and the United States. They were deeply rooted in the Bible and the pastors taught church members to take their faith and apply it to work, education, business, and politics.

Lucifer and his cabinet of high ranking fallen angels had ruled planets in the different part of the universe prior to the great space war, now they were projecting that the nations of earth would be totally corrupted by the year 2000, allowing them to usher in the World Federation.

Lucifer told his cabinet that it was necessary to change the doctrine of these fundamental churches in order to keep the timeline. It was therefore necessary to persuade Christians to abandon their involvement in school boards, city councils, as well as county, state, and federal government positions. They needed to be convinced of Jesus' imminent return and Lacunza's rapture doctrine to abandon the political system and leave it to the Luciferian people.

A fallen angel told Lucifer that the Bible clearly states Christians will be on earth during the Great Tribulation and all fundamental Protestant churches were teaching this doctrine. The fallen angel read the following Scripture references to Lucifer. Matthew 24:15-22; 2 Thessalonians 2:1-5; Revelation 13:6-9; 14:9-13

Lucifer tersely asked the director of the Religious department if this was true? It was confirmed that there were millions of Bibles in existence. The director responded that for the last 1,600 years his department had used evil spirits to possess all so-called "Christian leaders" and Bibles had been burned. The few Bibles that existed in Europe were written in Latin and only a priest had the education to read it. Common people were not allowed to read the Bible and the majority of Bibles were chained to the pulpits of the Roman Catholic Churches.

The director stated he was powerless when the Holy Spirit and holy angels swooped down and Martin Luther was born again in 1517. He used every power within Romanism to murder Luther, but the German monk was protected by powerful holy angels. He even tried to halt Luther's work of translating and publishing the Bible into German.

The director continued that he had been able to burn William Tyndale at the stake in 1536 and impede his Bible translation into English. However, when holy angels showed up and changed the policies of King James, it was a return to helplessness because Bibles were printed in the English language in 1611. It was impossible to stop the fire from heaven.

Lucifer screamed in anger and called the angels of the Religious department a bunch of idiots and losers. With a smile on his ugly face he screamed out, "If you cannot destroy the Bibles, pollute them instead and turn them into bastard Bibles that will support our policies." The director promised that his department would go to work at once.

Before Lucifer terminated the cabinet meeting, the director for the Propaganda department raised his hand and said it doesn't matter what the Bible says, my department will come up with a lie and we will repeat it until people swear it is the truth. Lucifer wanted to know how this would be accomplished. The director said he would inform the demons in his department to begin talking to pastors, teachers and church members, telling them that the Christians which Jesus and Paul mentioned are people who get saved after the rapture.

The demons will use their deceptive power to make Christians believe this is the truth. Since Lucifer is the father of lies, he knew this plan would work. Repeat a lie long enough and it will be perceived as truth. The Devil grinned at the evil and conniving creatures he ruled over. He ordered the Religious Department to find a pastor that could be corrupted with the false rapture doctrine.

THE LACUNZA DOCTRINE ARRIVED IN ENGLAND

The Religious Department found a Scottish clergyman named Edward Irving. He eventually moved to London to start the Holy Catholic Apostolic Church in 1832. Evil spirits were ordered to facilitate and make sure that Irving discovered Lacunza's writings. Irving was educated in the Spanish language and he deemed Lacunza's words to be of divine nature and translated it into English. Irving believed that all the gifts of the Holy Spirit were still in existence and after combining it with prophecy, he founded the first Charismatic Church.

The director of the Religious department was ecstatic that the false doctrine had been accepted by Irving. He did not care if Irvin and his followers spoke in tongues and prayed for the sick, nor did he worry that a number of people were saved. All of this was acceptable "collateral damage" as the end justify the means. They could afford to throw a few bones to Irving and have some people saved as long as millions of people went to hell.

To make sure that Irving was secure within the grip of the demons who possessed him, the Religious department produced a damaging teaching about Jesus' humanity which denied the deity of Jesus. The teaching was transferred to Irving by demons and he published this false doctrine in 1830. Three years later he was defrocked by the Church of Scotland for heresy. Nothing worked out for Irving and he died a broken man in 1834 at the age of 42. Lucifer did not care about Irving; he was just another useful idiot that strayed away from Christ and the Bible.

GETTING THE LACUNZA DOCTRINE TO AMERICA

Lucifer's religious department sought to infiltrate prophetic conferences in England. One of the most well-known was the "Powerscourt Conferences," which were hosted by a rich widow named Lady Powerscourt. Irving had been attending these conferences and introduced what became known as the "Pre-tribulation Rapture," based upon the writing of Manuel Lacunza. John Nelson Darby attended the conferences, embraced the Christian faith while in college, and became an ordained deacon in the Anglican Church of Ireland.

The Religious department ordered demons to enter Darby so he would fully embrace the Lacunza rapture teaching. The Religious department also developed a new slant for Christians, claiming it was a sin against the Holy Spirit to be full-time clergy. Together with some other men, Darby founded what became known as the "Plymouth Brethren."

Lucifer told the Religious director that human beings are like sitting ducks, ready to be killed and unable to defend themselves. "We never die," he bragged, "but humans only live for a short time. With a maximum lifespan of 3 hours,¹ we can control human history if we successfully destroy every new generation. If it were not for the Holy Spirit and the holy angels, the human race would have been exterminated with Adam and Eve."

The director agreed since he had held the same job for some 6,000 years. A human teenager does not stand a chance unless he is protected by holy angels. Divide and conquer has been a Luciferian motto since the Great Space War. Any doctrine that opposes the Word of God is welcomed by Lucifer. Ephesians 4:11-16

¹ We can deduce God's way of looking at time by dividing 1,000 years by 24 hours. (2 Peter 3:8) One hour with God is 41.67 years for man; one minute with God is 8 months and 8 days for man; and one second with God is 3 days and 22 hours for man

FINANCES

Lucifer is never short when it comes to finances. While we don't know his age, we do know he has been confined to the earth for the last 6,000 years. Thus, the rest of the fallen angels and the evil spirits (demons) have also been around for 6,000 years, effectively using their experience and historical knowledge to manipulate people. John Darby did not have money to travel, so the director of the Religious Department contacted the Financial department, which used demonic spirits to connect the British banker Henry Drummond Jr. to finance Darby, allowing him to travel throughout Europe and England and establish Plymouth Brethren assemblies. He was in Geneva, Switzerland and gave 11 lectures in 1840. Drummond sponsored these talks, paying for Darby's food, lodging, and travel expenses. Darby visited the United States and Canada five times between the years 1862 and 1877.

Darby was a workhorse for the Religious department, spreading not only the teaching about the pre-Tribulation rapture, but he also developed dispensationalism, which was necessary for Lucifer to advance his future Jewish messiah. Darby believed that God still had a covenant with Israel even though they had rejected the Son of God when Jesus came to them in the form of a man, effectively creating a two-tier salvation plan. Jews do not have to come to God through Jesus since the Lord has a special redemption plan for them. John Darby was used by Lucifer to give birth to Christian Zionism.

Darby's writings were collected and published during the years 1866-1881. He died in 1882 as yet another useful idiot. Lucifer congratulated the director of the Religious department for his excellent handling of Darby and his subsequent writings that were published to educate the next useful idiot. The director of the Religious department was pleased that he and his staff of fallen angles and evil spirits had served Lucifer for more than 6,000 years. He liked to be in the good graces of Lucifer.

It did not matter to Lucifer and the director of the Religious department that the pre-Tribulation Rapture and Christian Zionism were initially a fringe movement since they knew that time was on their side and they had the spiritual power to corrupt Christians to continue to do their bidding as useful idiots.

CYRUS SCOFIELD

Cyrus Scofield was born in 1843. Even though he was born in Michigan, he joined the Confederacy during the Civil War. He was never held accountable for betraying the United States and joining the rebellion of the southern states. He married and moved to Kansas and became an attorney in 1869.

Eventually Scofield became involved in politics and bribery, fled to Canada, abandoning his family. He was arrested for fraud when he returned some years later. He became an alcoholic and sat in a jail cell at the age of 36. Some Christian women regularly visited and witnessed to Scofield, so that he confessed his sins, received Christ, and proclaimed he was saved.

The director of the Religious department informed Lucifer that they had found the right candidate to spread the doctrine of the Pre-Tribulation Rapture. Scofield was qualified since he had been involved with the Jewish crime syndicate at that time. A demon was given the assignment to find someone who could connect Scofield with the writings of John Darby. Presbyterian Pastor James Brookes (1830-1897) was the man chosen.

As soon as Scofield was released from jail, he got into the ministry and joined the Presbyterian Church in St. Louis under Pastor Brookes, who had been in meetings with Darby and became a solid “Darbyite” as they were called at the time. Scofield studied and embraced the teachings of Darby.

LUCIFER’S SPIRITUAL SOUP

Prophecy teaching had become very popular on the eastern seaboard of the United States and the flames had been fanned by William Miller,² and later when he predicted the second coming of Christ and nothing happened, the torch was taken over by Ellen G. White. In this soup of false doctrine, it is also necessary to mention Joseph Smith, the founder of the Mormon Church, and Charles Taze Russell, the founder of the Jehovah’s Witnesses. Adding spice to this soup was John Darby.

John Darby traveled within the United States and converted pastors to the Lacunza doctrine. Brookes had become a total disciple of Darby and zealously worked to spread the Lacunza doctrine. Cooking the soup were Jewish rabbis, Jewish Zionists and Jewish bankers and businessmen. They worked diligently to lay the groundwork for a Jewish state in Palestine and recognized it would be very difficult for them to continue unless they could capture the Christian support of a Jewish state.

THE BIG PRICE – D.L. MOODY

Lucifer got daily briefings from the director of the Religious department. He told the director that Scofield must be steered to connect with D.L. Moody and use his vast network and the new Moody Bible Institute to promote the Lacunza doctrine.

The director searched for a church to insert Scofield and found The First Congregational Church of Dallas, Texas to be a likely candidate. Even though Scofield had only been saved for three years and had no formal theological training, the church called him to become their pastor and he moved to Dallas in 1882. The Religious department called it a “Luciferian appointment.” The church only had 17 members, and since Lucifer does not have the capacity to see into the future, he makes up for this deficiency by using fallen angels and evil spirits to move people and churches in the direction he wants to go.

Lucifer’s religious director controlled the American Home Missionary Society via evil spirits. In 1886 the AHMS called Scofield to become the superintendent of its denomination even though he had only been a pastor for four years. He took the job and was able to spread the Lacunza doctrine to hundreds of churches in the United States.

Lucifer was briefed on Scofield’s success and was elated. Scofield saw new churches planted between 1880-1893, schools were started, and he became president of Lake Charles College in Louisiana City. He also became the head of the Southwestern School of the Bible in Dallas, which later was renamed Dallas Theological Seminary.

Scofield started a magazine called "The Believer" in 1880 but later dropped the magazine and begin publishing a Bible correspondence course that was taken over by Moody Bible Institute in 1914. All his publications promoted the Lacunza doctrine and Christian Zionism.

The basic teaching of Scofield was that the Christian church had failed, the return of Jesus was imminent and Christians should pull out from all political involvement, including sitting on school boards, city and county governments, and state and federal governments. The slogan was "Leave it all to the Devil, Jesus is coming." Christians created a vacuum when they removed themselves from public offices and the void was filled by secular people who started to run the nation and its educational system. Lucifer was elated with the progress that had been made in only one hundred years. The Church of Jesus had been infiltrated and taken over.

D.L. Moody held an evangelistic campaign in Dallas in 1895 which involved Scofield, who at this time had been invited year after year to be a speaker at Moody's summer conferences in Massachusetts. Scofield weaseled himself into the Moody organization and conducted the funeral for Moody, who died in 1899 of an apparent heart attack.

The director of the Religious department reported that the Lacunza doctrine had become a staple doctrine of the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago and Biola in Los Angeles. Dallas Theological Seminary had accepted the Lacunza doctrine and the Religious director stated it was only a matter of time before all Baptist, Pentecostal and Evangelical churches taught the heretical Lacunza doctrine.

The Religious director also reported that Scofield had become a member of the Lotus club, which was run by Jewish mobster Samuel Untermyer. The icing on the cake was the fact that Scofield had completed his reference Bible in 1907, promoting the Lacunza doctrine and Christian Zionism. The director told Lucifer that the goal was to have the Scofield Bible in every fundamental church, including Baptists and Pentecostals. From 1940 it has become the standard Bible in these churches and people swear by it.

THE MOCKUMENTARY

Once the Rapture documentary was edited by the Religious Department, it was shown in a private viewing to the Supreme Leader and the Pastor. They were stunned by the fabulous video presentation. What a victory this was for Lucifer, who has been able to deceive the majority of Christian pastors, evangelist and church members and not be stopped by the Holy Spirit.

The Pastor remembered what the Holy Spirit stated to Paul, back in 67 A.D. when Christians reject the truth and God punishes them with strong delusion.

2 Thessalonians 2:9-12

The documentary with the Supreme Leader narrating certain parts is divided into three parts and shown on three consecutive evenings in each time zone around the world. The theme of the video is Lucifer removing Christians from public life and making it easy for his people to take control and eventually destroy the churches. This is what made it possible for Kabbalistic Jews to establish the political State of Israel in 1948.

There are video clips of Christians fleeing to the mountains and hills to be close with Jesus when He comes for them – as supposed in Lacunza’s rapture doctrine – when the Supreme Leader stepped into the temple and declared his godhood.

When the rapture failed to materialize, some Christians began to cry in frustration and others cursed their pastors and elders for not discerning the Bible. The majority returned to the cities to renounce their faith in Christ, pledge allegiance to the Supreme Leader and worship him as god, and receive the embedded microchip in their right hand or forehead. They walked away from Christianity and embraced this new religion. The Supreme Leader was tangible and real, unlike the mythical Jesus who had not shown up.

The documentary stirred something spiritual within people – like the “revival spirit” mentioned by Christians in the past – since they felt nothing could stop Lucifer, the Supreme Leader and the Pastor. Whatever faith in God these people once had was gone. There was no god except for Lucifer.

Christians in the wilderness did not have access to televisions and therefore could not watch this evil documentary. The Pastor ordered booklets to be made of the documentary and dropped over the wilderness areas. As Christians read it and saw the pictures, they realized the great deception that had destroyed most of the Christian churches, causing them to drop to their knees and thank God for the truth.

2 Thessalonians 2:13-17

Remember, it's not so important how you begin your life after salvation, but how you finish it!

Do you have an ear to hear with?
