PART 18: GOD'S GUIDANCE & PROVISION

CAMPING IN THE WILDERNESS

Once the Godhead had moved Moses and the people to Elim, they paused the virtual time run again to finalize their plans for moving them to the Promised Land. Angel quartermasters were told to estimate the supplies needed to keep three million Hebrews moving in the wilderness.¹

- ❖ 2,000 tons (four million pounds) of food would be needed each day. To bring in that much food each day would require three freight trains, each a mile long.
- ❖ Firewood was needed to cook and keep warm. The Hebrews would consume 4,000 tons (eight million pounds) of wood each day. This would necessitate a few more freight trains, each a mile long.
- ❖ Water represents life in the desert. It would be consumed by humans and animals alike and used to for light duty washing. At a minimum, they would require 11 million gallons each day, the equivalent of a freight train with tank cars stretching 1,800 miles long.
- ❖ Each time the Hebrews stopped to rest, a campground covering 750 square miles was set up.
- ❖ The angels also brought up the fact that if the people were to stay in the wilderness for a longer period, they would need clothing and shoes.

Deuteronomy 29:5

These numbers were not staggering to the Godhead that created a whole universe. The only challenge was accomplishing this in a legal manner that did not violate the stipulations from the trial of Lucifer.

At this point in the virtual time run, it was not known what kind of decisions the people would make. The Godhead decided to organize the Hebrews into a nation, set up a legal system, and train the young men in warfare. This would give the Hebrews the chance of a short stay in the wilderness. Angels would be used to subdue the people living in Canaan.

LUCIFER MARSHALS HIS FORCES

Lucifer ordered a huge force of evil spirits to mingle with the Hebrews and create strife and unbelief. The Godhead watched as Lucifer deceptively spread his lies. The people quickly forgot about their time as slaves in Egypt and the miracles God did to bring them out. They were consumed with the memories of the great food they had in Egypt.

Exodus 16:1-3

The Godhead responded and told Moses that food would be flown in every day. The angels activated an invisible factory in the air capable of baking 2,000 tons of flakes every day. They would double their output on the day before the Sabbath. This delicious angel food consisted of protein, minerals, vitamins that would bring health to the people eating it. Exodus 16:4-5

Moses was informed that the flakes – or Manna as it was called – was the breakfast food, and quail would arrive in the evening to provide the Hebrews with meat for dinner. The Godhead had been anticipating the move and the angels bred quail by the millions. They were programmed to fly in, land on the ground, and wait to be picked up by humans. verses 8-15

PRESSURE FROM LUCIFER

The Godhead knew the location of water in the wilderness, but in order to give Lucifer another chance to tempt the people, the Hebrews were led to Rephidim where there was no water. The air drop of food continued as usual, but there was a scarcity of water. The people were hot and thirsty, and instead of asking Moses to call upon the Lord, the demons riled up the people and verbally attacked Moses for leading them out of Egypt. Exodus 17:1-3

Moses became desperate and cried out to the Lord that the people were about to stone him. verse 4

Jesus intervened and told Moses that He would supply them with water. verses 5-7

The angels had kept neighboring people away from the Hebrews up to this point, but with their unbelief and complaining, the protection was removed and an army of Amalekites showed up to fight.² Moses mustered the soldiers from the different tribes and Joshua was put in command.

Jesus knew that the Hebrews had not been sufficiently trained for war and put it in the mind of Moses to go to a hilltop. The Israelites prevailed as long as Moses held up his rod in the air, but when he got tired, the Amalekites got the upper hand. Aaron and Hur held up Moses' arms until the battle was won. verses 8-16

SETTING UP A JUDICIAL SYSTEM

In order to stay within the legal parameters, the Godhead moved upon Jethro, the father-in-law of Moses, to visit Moses and the people in the wilderness and bring Zipporah and their two sons that Moses had previously sent home while he was in Egypt.

Jethro realized that the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob was the real God, the Creator of the universe, and as such He is supreme and only He should be worshiped. Exodus 18:1-12

This was a boost to Moses since he held his father-in-law in high regard. When Jethro informed Moses that his judicial system was set up incorrectly, Moses listened and the Hebrew people were shaped into a nation with a national judicial system. verses 13-27

² Amalek was the grandson to Esau.

SUMMARY

God is all about law and order. The Godhead would provide the Hebrews with laws and statutes that would govern the nation, but also the future church of Jesus Christ. The laws given to Moses would be passed on to the judges among the Hebrews and this would create a lawful and peaceful society. Obviously, Lucifer did not approve of this plan since he is lawless and wants people to sin.

When it came to their battle with the Amalekites, the Hebrews learned that they would always win with God on their side.

It is interesting that Lucifer has been able to convince Christian leaders some 3,500 years later that the moral and practical laws given to Moses are no longer valid and Christians have no obligation to keep them.

The fiber of society is being destroyed with the lawlessness we see today at “wokeness.” Homosexuality, adultery, fornication, pornography, and exploitation of children are the norm among the progressives.

Satan was eventually able to destroy Israel and cause them to lose their land. He is working overtime to turn people against God and invoke heavenly wrath upon the “woke.” Matthew 5:17-19

Any person who is born again can only come to one conclusion:

The formation of the Messianic bloodline is the story of supernatural intervention as the Godhead intervenes in the affairs of mankind. The narrative will culminate when Jesus and the holy angels crush the Antichrist system.

Remember, it's not so important how you begin your life after salvation, but how you finish it!
